IN FOCUS NEWS

- A Legacy of Compassion Honoured: Adventist Stasia Dabrowski, known as Canberra's "Soup Kitchen Lady," has been honoured with a life-size statue in Australia. For nearly 40 years, she faithfully served hundreds of vulnerable people through food, friendship, compassion, and Christian love.
- Loma Linda Expands Behavioral Health Care: Loma Linda University Health has opened a new EmPATH Unit designed to provide a calmer environment for adults and children experiencing mental health crises. The 24-space facility will offer timely assessment and compassionate, whole-person care.
- Solar Power Empowers Syrian Farmers: ADRA MENA's GLOW Project is helping farmers in Syria restore agricultural land through mobile solar-powered irrigation units. The initiative supports 100 beneficiaries, reducing dependence on costly fuel while empowering women and strengthening sustainable livelihoods.

SICK AND SHUT-INS

Please reach out to our sick and shut-in members with a call and a prayer. Let them know they are loved, cherished, and not forgotten. Please also continue to pray for our grieving members and for all families who have lost loved ones due to illness. May God bring them comfort, strength, and peace during this difficult time.
